“First Responders to First Responders”

10-33 Foundation

Jim Wilson, President/Founder

Jim brings an extensive and diverse career background to the Foundation which includes serving in the United States Air Force for 6 years, working as an EMT-1A for Solano Ambulance, and 18 years of experience as a correctional officer for the Solano County Sheriff's Office. To his credit he also served as a volunteer firefighter for what he describes as about 30 seconds of his life. After leaving the Sheriff's Office he entered ministry, serving as a Children's Pastor and other ministry jobs as assigned. Jim now serves as a chaplain for the Cities of Dixon and the Vacaville Fire Department where he works with law enforcement and fire personnel, as well as the citizens of the communities. In 2011 Jim founded the 10-33 Foundation to help all first responders and their families lead healthy and balanced professional and private lives. In 2015 the Foundation was expanded to include services to global first responders, military personnel and their families.
